

2010 - 2013: A LOOK BACK

2010

Melissa Villa, and daughter Francesca, started Project PEARLS through a simple Feeding Program in Ulingan, Tondo.

Through the help of families and friends, they were able to start a weekly feeding program.

Ulingan is a Filipino word which means 'charcoal factory'.

2011

Kids in Ulingan are not just hungry for food, but for education as well.

The PEARLS Learning Center in Ulingan was opened for the first batch of preschool scholars.

Feeding program expanded with the inclusion of Brain Booster activity and Birthday program.

The Scholarship Program was also launched.

Project PEARLS brings love and smiles to children.
