Operation One Love

When Typhoon Haiyan (known locally as Super Typhoon Yolanda) hit central Philippines in November 2013, Project PEARLS immediately started relief drives and sent boxes of donations to the affected areas in Tacloban .

But it did not stop there. Three months later, in February 2014, PEARLS volunteers set off for an extraordinary five-day journey: Operation One Love.

The mission was to bring renewed hope and joy to the families and children who lost their homes, livelihood, and loved ones.
